ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: The Mission Inn project at Arbor Circle is a comprehensive, community-based wraparound model that integrates the principles of Infant Mental Health and substance abuse treatment. This cultural and gender-sensitive treatment approach is provided in the child's natural environment and addresses the specific needs of substance using women during pregnancy and their young children. The project proposes to serve 100 families in the project period. The Mission Inn project is located in Grand Rapids, Michigan, the second largest city in the state, and serves primarily Kent County as well as the surrounding counties of Ottawa, Ionia and Barry.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The primary goal of the Mission Inn project is to promote safe, secure, permanent and nurturing homes for infants and young children at risk of abandonment or who have been abandoned due to the effects of parental substance abuse. The proposed project will provide integrated, in-home infant mental health and substance abuse treatment and services, in a wraparound model specifically tailored to the individual needs of mothers and families. Service goals include improving support systems, offering respite care and peer mentoring, assisting with permanency, planning, providing assistance with needs and providing training and education to families and the community.
